STUDENTS REMAINING in Provo will depart at 7:30 a.m. from the Travel Study office to go by bus to the Salt Lake Airport.

The group will then fly via New York and Amsterdam to Munich, Germany, then there they will take a two hour bus ride through Baravia to Salzburg, arriving there Sunday.

UPON ARRIVAL in Salzburg a reception is planned with several of the city dignitaries. According to Dennis Taylor, studentbody president for the group, the program will provide a broader view of international problems and understanding to the students.

Accompanying the students will be four BYU faculty members including Ray Hillman, of the Political Science Dept., Dr. John Halliday of the Music Dept.; Dr. Eugene Campbell, of the History Dept.; and Dr. Arthur Watkins, of the Language Dept.

PREREQUISITE for the trip is at least two semesters of German. At Salzburg the students will take advanced courses in German, and study German and Austrian history, music, and European culture.

Supplementary courses will be taught by the professors who accompany the group.

MANY SIDE TRIPS are planned for the group during their visit. A six-day Easter trip will take the students to Rome, Florence and Venice.

A three-day return trip to Venice is planned for mid-May. Upon completion of the semester May 29, students will tour various European countries.

STUDENT OFFICERS said they plan to hold various cultural exchanges with the German and Austrian student groups.

Student officers chosen to assist Pres. Taylor are Robert King, culture; Paul Carpenter, publicity; and Suzanne Jepson, secretary.

Paul Carpenter has agreed to establish a correspondence with the Universe to inform the BYU students of the activities of the Salzburg group.

With excitement mounting as departure time approaches, these BYU students are getting ready for their semester of study in Salzburg.

Malcolm X In Selma Predicts End To Nonviolent Civil Rights Movement

SELMA, Ala. (AP)—Hundreds of Negro students, called together for another civil rights demonstration, heard a prediction from risk Nationalist leader Malcolm X Thursday that the campaign for racial equality may be forced to abandon its nonviolent image.

THE FORMER Black Muslim leader's unexpected visit to Selma delayed the scheduled resumption of the march, but in neighboring Perry County, Negroes continued their demonstration and about 200 more were arrested.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., who has led the civil rights movement in Selma, returned to the city for the fourth day. His wife Coretta came here from Atlanta in hopes of visiting him in his cell.

MRS. KING, who was born in Perry County, also spoke to the student assembly in a Selma church and commended the march.

argers "for the courageous job you are doing."

She said she is "very proud of what is happening in Perry County and Selma," and told the students she has confidence they will continue their struggle.

AT HIS NEWS conference in Washington Thursday, President Johnson said that it was essential to the nation's freedom that all citizens have the right to vote.

"I intend to see that right is secured," he said in direct allusion to the Negro voter registration drive in Alabama.

MALCOLM X told the cheering Selma students, who were absent from their classrooms, that "the white man should thank God that Dr. King has held his people in check because there are others who don't feel that way."

He predicted that unless white Southerners—and leaders in the federal government as well—"are intelligent enough" to give the Negro equal rights without violence, there are others who are ready to lead a different kind of movement.

"High-Brow Humbug..."

Yearly Skits-O-Frantic Will Be Shown Friday

"High-Brow Humbug," the first studentbody function of the spring semester will be presented Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Smith Fieldhouse.

The presentation, under the auspices of the ASBYU production Guild, features original skits from various campus wards and organizations.

LYING FOR the top three trophies will be the Spurs, service unit; Rogers Hall, Heritage Hall, dormitory; the Young Men, service unit; the Intercollegiate Knights, service unit; and the BYU 44th Ward.

During the interludes between each of the skits various members of the studentbody will provide a wide variety of entertainment.

JUDGING the skits will be Mrs. Frances Snyder, ASBYU general board member in charge of roadshows; Margy Potter, Provo High School speech teacher; and Glen Sacco, Days of '47 Talent Chairman and Jordan High drama coach.

Students will be admitted by activity card. Others are 30 cents each.

Genealogy Aid

A genealogical workshop for researchers in Utah Valley has been scheduled Sunday from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. in the Clark Library, a branch of Salt Lake's Genealogical Library.

Asst. Director Donald K. Nelson said specialists in American, British and Scandinavian research will be available to help.

Dr. Taylor To Speak At Fireside

DR. TAYLOR, under the direction of President Ernest L. Wilkinson, is responsible for the administration and building programs of all the educational institutions of the Church in the South Pacific, South America, Mexico and Hawaii.

In conjunction with these schools, he has recently completed an 18,000 mile inspection tour in the company of Elder Delbert L. Stapley, member of the Quorum of Twelve Apostles.

THE PURPOSE of the 15 day trip was to evaluate the current needs of these schools.

Responsible for the Ricks College and the Continuing Education Dept., Dr. Taylor also planned the Smoot Administration Building here.

A LIST of his achievements has recently been requested for publication in "Who's Who in America" to appear this year. He was awarded Mewa, Arizona's first "Most Valuable Citizen" award.

New Agency Established For Art Dept.

A new agency, the BYU Design and Art Production Studio, has been established to act as a clearing house for art and design needs as well as providing opportunities for artists, architects and builders.

THE DEPARTMENT is currently developing a portfolio of art and talent which will last the services available, according to Paul P. Forester, director.

The game will be televised only the Y Center, unless the staff of the Radio-Television Dept. can make special arrangements in time.

Orwell's 1984 Reviewed...

Man the Species Of Animal Kingdom

Editor's Note: This is the third in this series of book reviews for the Academic Review's "Academic Review of the Year 1980" from the University of Utah. The book is written in English and is available in paperback and hardcover. It is available at the University of Utah Press, Provo, Utah, and is available at the University of Utah Press, Provo, Utah, and is available at the University of Utah Press, Provo, Utah.

by Monika Hauber

Orwell's 1984 is interesting but not really possible, for the post-World War III era is not as grim a place as Orwell pictures it. Three superstates are continuously at war with each other, too large to be conquered yet not able to crush the others. This struggle is more like a game with well-defined rules and goals, because the fighting is confined to the no-man's land Africa and serves mainly as a means to get rid of surplus production, to channel aggressions against the enemy, and to perpetuate despotism at home. The real war is conducted by the governing elites of each state against the people.

1984 DESCRIBES the society of Oceania, one of the three superstates, but Orwell implies that life is the same in the other states. The people are divided into three classes: the High, Low, and Middle. In "newspeak" they are called "inner party," "proles," and the "outer party." The object of the inner party is to perpetuate its dictatorship and privileged position despite the cyclical nature of history.

Heretofore it had been the fate of every top class to be succeeded in its dominant position by a new class of leaders from the middle class: O'Donnell, Orwell's mouthpiece, says that the party has found the way to stop this cycle. Each member of the inner party pays for admission to the elite with complete self-annihilation. Orwell considers the strong for power so overwhelming that men are willing to surrender completely to the party.

ORWELL'S BASIC assumption of nature is that man is just another species of the animal kingdom. Otherwise I cannot see how he could reach these conclusions about "utopia." There is no nature of man in the Platonic sense, nor is man what he makes of himself. Man is what others determine him to be.

I think this is the major weakness in Orwell's thought that he does not grant man the freedom to choose. Nor can I agree that man would go through the kind of self-abasement necessary to be a member of the "inner party." Furthermore, even if a man might wish to do it, I don't see how he could continue functioning in a position of responsibility.

SOME OF THE interesting features of the book are the use of "newspeak," "doublethink," and Orwell's explanation for the anti-emotionalism of the party. With the introduction of newspeak, the party hoped in time to make herself utterly invisible. Doublethink is the mechanism by which the individual party member could evade all inner conflicts, and Orwell notes that the higher an individual rises in the party the more fanatic and asleep he is with doublethink.

The anti-emotionalism of the party is founded on the fact that the party feeds on the fanaticism and over-enthusiasm of its members. Therefore, the party can not permit people to love.

Although Orwell's premises do not hold, he has nevertheless succeeded in presenting shrewd insights about the nature of political control, the interrelationship within a society and the function of wars. His observations about mankind are not too flattering but unfortunately he is not altogether wrong.

IT'S SPRING — ALMOST

With the temperature hitting the 50's for the past few days, students are taking advantage of the Spring weather. Instead of the usual bulky coats, scarves and other usual February paraphernalia, students are wearing sweaters or windbreakers.

Winter Carnival Committee Doubtful...

Spring Weather Nice-- But Not For Everyone

by Sharon Beauchamp

Feature Editor

"Spring is busting out all over" and it really shows at BYU. There are signs of Spring everywhere. The bookstore is selling spring clothes and students are not wearing the usual February attire of overcoats, boots, scarves etc. It really feels like Spring Semester and jumping from the arms of some students it looks like spring fever is here.

ALTHOUGH MANY of the students are very happy about the unusual weather there is one group that isn't very pleased. These unhappy faces belong to the Winter Carnival Committee members. The one word that sends them screaming is "snow."

Since the success of Winter Carnival depends on the weather and the participants, here are a few suggestions from students about the problems of the Winter Carnival Committee.

BONNIE ALTMAN, a Sophomore from Florida suggested,

"Why don't we postpone the sculpture part of it."

"Move the activities up where the snow can be found." Said Irma Hernandez from California. Terry Yockey, a member of the Senior House of Representatives said, "I hear the weather is very changeable here and it's very possible that we will have snow next week."

A VERY DIFFERENT IDEA was given by Marilyn Miller, a sophomore from San Francisco. She suggested "following the traditional beliefs of the Indians we should do a snow dance."

The local angle was given by Dick Young as he stated "they never have snow during Winter Carnival. They should just wait and schedule it when the snow starts falling."

Gates' Symphony To Be Performed By Dallas Group

"Symphony No. 3," a new composition by Dr. Crawford Gates, will be performed by the Dallas Symphony Orchestra at a national composers' conference to be held in Dallas, Tex., Feb. 6-8.

THE ORCHESTRAS' musical director Donald Johnston will conduct the premier performance of the work along with eight other new pieces selected by a panel of prominent conductors and music educators.

Dr. Gates has been invited to attend the conference. Noted composer and chairman of the Brigham Young University Music Department, he composed the symphony while working under a BYU research grant, 1962-64, financing it while on sabbatical leave from the University last year.

ACCORDING TO DR. GATES, "Symphony No. 3" is written in one movement divided into four sections.

Dr. Gates has composed more than 225 original works and hundreds of arrangements. Among the most important are the music for "Promised Valley," the 1967 Utah Centennial musical play, "Sand in Their Shoes," musical play based on the Mormon Battalion performed at BYU in 1959 and 1960; "Pharaoh's Lullaby," the MIA Festival of 1958; and "Papa and the Playhouse," 1962 musical play celebrating the centennial of the Salt Lake Theater.

Another happy, lighthearted testimonial for UV

"I used to be bothered by extreme feeling of hostility toward a paternal uncle. Then I moved into University Villa, met new friends and was charmed by the charm of the place, including the pool and areas for leisure time. I found a warm contentment that I had never felt before. I have now successfully transferred my hostility to Ghengis Khan, thanks to my psychiatrist and University Villa."

Laos Loyalists told Vientiane ixty Killed

BANGKOK, THAILAND, (AP)—Loyalists held complete control of Vientiane Thursday and rebel forces of a 10-hour battle that told Rightist against. Rightist the Laotian capital Wednesday are reported holding up at ussue.

PARSAANE is a Rightist military headquarters town 70 miles southeast of Vientiane on the Mekong river, which forms the border between Laos and Thailand.

Advisers from across the Mekong said the town was the goal of a flight by Gen. Phoumi Savan, the Rightist Deputy Premier whose luxurious villa was burned in the battle, and Gen. Sano Lamphouthou, the commander of both military and civilian police in Vientiane.

Sihou 31, had cast his lot with group of young army officers, led by an aide of Phoumi, in an uprising they said was aimed at forming the Royal Army's high command.

GEN. OUANE RATHKONE, 40, firmly in the saddle as the army's Chief of Staff, told reporters in Vientiane that Phoumi and Sihou fled with an estimated 40 men.

Military sources estimated as many as 60 persons were killed in a battle. Uncounted others were wounded.

DeGaulle Suggests Meet Red China Among Group

PARIS, (AP)—President Charles De Gaulle Thursday suggested a five-power conference—including Communist China—to resolve the crisis in the United Nations.

HE ALSO DECLARED that the role of the dollar in international finance should be deemphasized, and that the problem of German reunification could be solved only by Europeans.

Throughout a 75-minute news conference in the ornate Red and Gold Room at the Elysee Palace, De Gaulle kept coming back to a recurring theme—the need for reducing U.S. influence in European affairs.

He was never truculent or indignant. He developed his opinions in long explanations delving into the historical development of each problem and added briefly how he thought they could be solved.

The principal points covered during the news conference:

—The United Nations has strayed far from its charter and has been used as a political tool in the Cold War. Without mentioning the United States, he asserted that the U.N. Congo operation had been used to send in political, economic and administration missions favorable to one big power. He said the only way he could see to get the United Nations back on the track was a five-power conference at Geneva of Britain, the United States, the Soviet Union, Communist China and France.

—THE INTERNATIONAL Monetary system based mainly on gold and dollars is outmoded and a system relying solely on gold should be substituted.

—The problem of German reunification will take a long time to solve, but it is a European problem and can be settled only by Europeans. The implication was that the continued U.S. presence in Europe would make unification difficult or impossible to solve.

In Washington, President Johnson said the U.N. troubles arose from nations violating the charter, not from the charter itself, but he would be glad to consider De Gaulle's five-power proposal.

Secretary-General U. Thant said at the United Nations in New York he would give careful study to the plan. The British foreign office declined comment.

The London Evening Standard said, however, De Gaulle had "read to Washington what was virtually a European Declaration of Independence."

DE GAULLE DREW laughter from the 800 reporters from all parts of the world as he answered a question about the state of his health.

Although he usually waits for all questions, and then lumps the answers, in this case De Gaulle said with a smile: "I am going to answer that question right now. I am not too bad, but rest assured, one of these days I will not fail to die."

Constitutional Amendment . . .

Committee OK's Policy

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee approved unanimously Thursday a constitutional amendment to establish procedures for dealing with presidential disability and keeping the office of vice president filled.

ONLY MINOR CHANGES were made in the proposal authored by Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., who called them clarifying and said the basic provisions of his original version are preserved.

Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., Chairman of the Committee, said some members who favored sending the proposal to the Senate floor for action reserved the right to report amendments during the debate.

Bayh said he understands the Senate will not act until after the traditional Lincoln Day break at the end of next week. Meanwhile, Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., of the House Judiciary Committee plans to have his group work on the similar proposal next Tuesday.

THE SENATE PASSED substantially the same proposal last year 65 to 0, but the House did not act on it.

One change made by the committee is in the procedure under which Congress would decide whether a disabled president should resume office if he and the vice president disagree on the question.

As written originally, the section said Congress should immediately "settle the issue. Some Senators said this could raise doubts about the right of Congress to have chief hearings to question doctors and other witnesses. The wording was changed to read that Congress should "immediately proceed to decide."

Young Men don't intend to enforce their new policy, said George Niles, South Bybee, and Gary Lazzari, who were with their group. Young Men also perform well.

Young Men Enforce Control, Schedule Semester Open House

If you haven't noticed, there has been a change at the BYU basketball games this year. Any one who has waited in line for a ticket to a basketball game knows the horrors involved.

YOU COULD BE number 37 in line and by the time tickets are passed out you've discovered to your chagrin that you're number 2,037 in the same line. The Young Men Club has been assigned the job of preventing such occurrences as this by enforcing crowd control. This program has proven to be very successful according to school officials and appreciative students.

THE CROVDs have been moved into the fieldhouse much more rapidly than in the past. This is only one of the many projects of the Young Men, according to Charles Nackos, club president. "Our main goal as a pep club is to engender more enthusiasm and spirit for sports."

"WE INVITE any BYU male who loves sports to attend," said.

Moon Project Subject For Dr. Fletcher

Dr. Harvey J. Fletcher will speak Sunday at 8:45 p.m. in the Little Theater, 321 Y Center, at a fireside sponsored by Blue Key.

Dr. Fletcher will speak on the United States' effort to put a man on the moon—Project APOLLO. He recently returned to BYU from working on APOLLO where he specialized on possible lunar trajectories for the moon shot.

Receiving his B.S. degree in physics at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Dr. Fletcher went for his Master's degree in physics at California Institute of Technology and later received a Ph.D. in math at the University of Utah.

Blue Key has extended a special invitation to Phi Eta Sigma and Archon Honor Fraternity for this fireside.

Hitchcock Thrills At Y Theater

The movie playing at the Center Theater this week was produced and directed by Alfred Hitchcock.

"TO CATCH A THIEF" stars Cary Grant as an ex-convict, ex-wed thief that falls in love with Grace Kelly, who plays the part of a very wealthy American looking for a European husband.

The "Car" is suspected of continuing his old thievery and the film becomes a real Hitchcock thriller.

'Grandfather' Speaks On Church Growth

All missionaries who have served in the British Isles are invited by the Shamrock Society to hear Selvey J. Boyer, past president of the London Temple, at a fireside in the Y Center Theater, Sunday at 9 p.m.

The theme of the evening is "The Church's Development in the British Isles," said Russell Marriott, president of the society. A short history of important events and facts about the growth of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be given by Brent Barlow.

With a present membership of 90,000 and 1,500 missionaries serving in nine missions, the Church in the British Isles has a history of expansion. All of the presidents of the Church, with the exception of Joseph Smith, served a mission there.

President Boyer, known as the "Grandfather" of the British Mission by many of his missionary friends, has had a special call to preach in the British Isles. He has served "three missions" in those islands.

From 1923-25 he left his family at home to accept his first call. As the mission president from 1946-1950, he reopened Britain to establish a new period of growth following World War II. He and his wife again returned in 1958 to open the new London Temple. He served until 1964 as its first president.

Selvey Boyer has been mayor of Springfield, secretary to the State Farm Bureau, and member of the Utah Tax Commission.

British missionary organizations on campus include the Shamrock Society (Irish), Scotsmen, British Mission Alumni, Central British Missionaries, and the Royal Society of Returned Missionaries from the Southwest British Mission.

Sophomore Class Leads Competition In Contributions To Campus Chest

Leading the classes in total contributions to the Campus Chest drive is the Sophomore class, according to Bill Taylor, chairman of the drive.

Contributions to the Campus Chest Drive assists directly many students, pointed out Arlet S. Ballif, acting dean of students.

When students make a contribution to the Campus Chest, a portion of it is given to the International Student Service.

The service, centrally located in New York City, is intended to give assistance to the new student arriving in this country from a foreign land.

Wednesday evening collections were made by the committee at the halls and at various areas of the off-campus housing, according to chairman Taylor.

Following the basketball game Saturday with Utah State University there will be held a victory dance at the Y Center the proceeds of which will be donated to the Campus Chest Drive.

All the proceeds from the Ugly man contest now being held on campus will also be donated to the drive.

Acting Dean Ballif, hopes that all students will be considerate in this matter, and give the best they can to the drive because of the many worthy purposes it serves.

Agencies receiving aid through the campus chest drive include the Utah County Mental Health Assn., the Primary Children's Hospital, the BYU Blind and the County March of Dimes.

Noted Author Exhibits Work

An exhibition of the works of Hjalmar Bergman, Master of Modern Swedish Drama, and one of Sweden's leading playwrights, is now on display on the fourth and fifth levels of the Harris Fine Arts Center, according to Dr. Harold I. Hansen, chairman of the Dramatic Arts Dept.

HJALMAR BERGMAN is one of the great names in Swedish literature and his fame in Europe is widespread; yet he has remained virtually unknown in the English speaking world.

One of his plays, Swedenhelms, has been performed over 5500 times in ten different languages; another, The Baron's Will, over 5000 times; and still another, Markurells in Wadköping, over 3,000 times.

AN EXTREMELY VITAL gift of story-telling, a daring and fertile imagination were combined in Bergman with a psychological clarity of vision which at times has the powerful effect of revelation.

Bergman once said, "For me, the most fascinating figure in literature or history has been, is, and shall remain Jesus of Nazareth."

Cats Over Power Marquette 91-64

It was 14 demerits below zero when Marquette left Minneapolis yesterday, but they found no other warm weather awaiting them in the West. The Cougars had prepared an extra warm welcome.

JOHN FAIRCHILD LED the Cougars to their 91-64 triumph, but scoring honors belonged to Marquette forward Tom Flynn who picked up 24 points for the Warriors, scoring on 10 foul shots and four charity tosses in the foul-studded circus.

The Mountain Cats were whistled down 29 times and the Warriors left Condon, Neil Roberts, Clark Barman and Paul Hall were retired with five personal fouls apiece for the Cats, while four Cougars earned five for Marquette.

IT TOOK THE Cougars exactly four minutes and 38 seconds to take control of the game and after that it was all BYU. They moved out quickly, primarily on the strength of 10 points by Fairchild and nine by Jim Jimas to lead 46-30.

The second half was even more of a BYU show. The visitors never scored a field goal until the 14:23 mark, and had only four in over sixteen minutes of play, a factor which was reflected in their 28 per cent shooting average.

THE COUGARS demonstrated the fineness of their ball handling rather aptly as they easily recovered from what might have been costly mistakes on several occasions and turned them into scoring plays.

The Warriors did come out on top in one extreme, however. They managed to maintain an edge in rebounding over a fast attack by the bouncing Cats.

Anyone wants to talk about one court advantage, they talk to the BYU Frosh. ST NIGHT THEY completely outplayed the Weber State men, on the home boards, kept the season series. Early in the year they beat the Wilds at Ogden 89-84 in over-

Kittens started fast, with Perkins hitting in close, and Reid popping from the air. Perkins ended up with 14 points for a line night, the guard combination of Perkins and Schoufen came 10 and 11 points respectively. Updike Neeshome were the other two to hit in double figures. BOB WORTH, AND Lee were led the Weber Frosh with 16, and 14 markers apiece, as they combined to total more than half of the points scored for their team.

Tomorrow night the Kittens will entertain the Ramblers from Logan. This will be the preliminary game to the Aggie-Varsity tilt. The contest will again be a rematch of the game held earlier in the season at Logan, where the Kittens came out on top of a 79-71 score.

Y Grapplers Grab Breath Before Aggie Mat Battle

Nobody relaxes in U's wrestling room, but at least some of the pressure will be off Fred Davis' grapplers this week as they take a brief rest before returning to the mat with Utah State. Earlier this season the Cougars whipped the Aggies 27-7.

WINNING in seven of eight events, the Cougar matmen rolled to their sixth straight win as they beat Utah, 23-3, in Provo last weekend.

The Cats came on strong to take six decisions and a pin for the victory. The closest match of the evening came in the 177-division where Veri Miller, junior from Burns, Ore., outkicked Utah's Reiner Pravitt to take a 6-5 decision on riding time.

MONTE JONES, the Cougar's heavyweight, claimed the only pin of the evening with a first period fall over the Ute's Marv Kizarian.

Five of Fred Davis' team remain undefeated as the Cats near the halfway mark in their dual meet schedule. Jones (heavyweight), Dan Groski (167), Mike Young (147), Mac Motolawa (137), and Darold Henry (130) have yet to lose a match.

DENNIS HERENDEN (157) has a 5-1 record, and 177-pound entry Veri Miller has a 2-2 mark. Mike Hart (123) stands 2-4 on the season.

The going is expected to get rougher for the Cougars, since they wrestle their next four matches on the road. After the contest in Logan, they meet Utah in Salt Lake City, Oregon State at Corvallis, and Portland State at Portland.

Dennis Herenden wrestling in the 157 lb. class boasts a 5-1 record this season and has undoubtedly contributed to the Cougars' undefeated status this season. Here Herenden battles Gary Jensen in last week's Utah series.

Yank Slugger Gets $107,000

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle has agreed to terms with the New York Yankees for $107,000 salary, tops in baseball, the New York Post reported this week.

THE REPORT said the Yankees also have reached an agreement with Roger Maris at $70,000 restoring the cut he took last season.

Both players reportedly will sign official contracts within the next few days.

THE YANKEES said neither player had signed a contract, and declined to comment on salary offers.

Until now Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants has been acknowledged as the top-salaried baseball player at $105,000. He recently signed for the same figure.

Frankly, I don't think he can afford it.

Yes, who does he think he's going to impress?
